Dear Mr. Weisberg.

On WCIX (cable television) Reading appeared for a minute or so to relate an anecdote about, as the announcer stated, "the human side of Richard Nixon." Reading said when he, Nixon and one Fred Cately were at Duke Univ together, Nixon showed his largest friendship he ever showed to Cately. Cately was cuffed or dealed in some way and Nixon used to carry him up and down the stairs to the law school. Reading never directly stated that he new Nixon as a close friend. His tone did however imply it. When he stated: When we were at Duke Univ together.

I don't know to what extent the information I send to you is useful. I would rather send you anything that is related and allow you to take it for whatever it's worth to you. Please, do not waste time answering my letters. COVER as I know you received fortune and working hard. Only reply when you thank it sincerely.
